

Jimi Lou Coleman, Administrative Assistant

Jimi Lou has worked alongside Dr. Maggi for more than 20 years, providing steady leadership in the business office by maintaining accurate records and ensuring efficient day-to-day operations. Prior to joining Dr. Maggi's practice, she served as a bank officer, bringing a strong background in financial management and organizational oversight.

Jimi Lou is an active member of her local church, where she has faithfully taught Sunday School to four- and five-year-old children for over 30 years and participates in the church choir. She is also a dedicated volunteer with the Denison Animal Welfare Group (DAWG), reflecting her commitment to service in the community and a sincere kindness for our special pals.

She has been married to her husband, Jerry, for 38 years and has deep family roots in the Denison, Texas area.
